Description

€550,000

An authentic, stone-built, large village house with ample parking, traditional courtyard leading into a separate spacious room (which can be used for storage or studio conversion), swimming pool and garden containing a 100-year-old fig tree, overlooking the countryside and on a clear day you can see the coast of Zygi in the distance. Apart from the main house, there are also two other parts of the house with private entrances containing further bedrooms, bathrooms and kitchen/living areas. The main house has a lovely outdoor sitting space by the swimming pool with room for outdoor furniture and sunbeds. Through the main entrance, you enter a hall with a downstairs guest toilet, following onto the living room, dining room, and kitchen. Upstairs there are 2 master bedrooms with en suite, and 1 guest room with a family bathroom. The common area upstairs leads to a large balcony. Everything is renovated in a traditional Cypriot style.

The second section of the house is reached by an outdoor staircase leading to a private entrance. This space contains a kitchen, living room
